

EDITORIAL INTERNSHIP

WHAT TO EXPECT

The internship is paid and requires 7.5 hours of availability per week. We are willing to work with your college advisor if you wish this internship to count as credit for coursework.

INTERNSHIP RESPONSIBILITIES

- Contacting parishes for scheduling information
- Updating the FAITH index
- Writing stories for FAITH Magazine
- Assisting with focus groups
- Proofing and editing tasks
- Other projects as designated by the editors

DESIRED SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

Student interns should be professional, competent in Microsoft Word, able to take direction and work independently. Must have knowledge and understanding of Catholicism. A major in English or creative writing is preferred.

TO APPLY

Submit resume and writing samples to Elizabeth Solsburg at esolsburg@faithcatholic.com. Please indicate your availability during this and upcoming semesters.

about us

FAITH Catholic Publishing and Communications is one of America's largest and fastest-growing Catholic publishers. We are a non-profit company that publishes magazines and provides creative design services to Catholic organizations throughout the United States.

FAITH Catholic provides a professional, progressive and innovative atmosphere in which to work.

look us up

WEBSITE www.FAITHcatholic.com

TWITTER @Faith_Catholic

FACEBOOK FAITH Catholic

OUR WORK

We design magazines that are published throughout the country, including FAITH magazine right here in Lansing.

www.faithcatholic.com

1500 E. Saginaw
Lansing, MI 48906

